A Packed House Greets Governor at Clifton Forge.

SPEAKS IN STIFLING HEAT

The Crowd Frequently Applauded His Sentiments As to Government.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CLIFTON FORGE, VA., June 22 .-Greeted by an audience which packed the Opera House, filling the corridors and every available space, thrilled by inspiring music of the Alpine Band, Governor Montague made his debut last evening before a Clifton Forge audi-There a group standing high in official railway life, there an iron master or mine owner interspersed with ministers, bankers, merchants and the rank and file of industrial life.

The appearance of the Chief Executive was a signal for tremendous applause. After being introduced by Mr. George O. Greene, of the Daily Review, the Governor thanked his audience, whom he lauded as a generous, rising, growing industrial people, doing all in their power to advance the general welfare of the Commonwealth and promote good citizenship.

citizenship. Among other things, he said that government was best which is administered best, but, in the long run, he would take the Democratic form of govern-

TRIBUTE TO LEB.

In closing he unid a beauliful and touching tribute to the memory of the late General Fitzhugh Lee, having held his hearers in rapture for an hour and a half, under most uncomfortable circumstances, 'mid stilling heat of the overtaxed auditorium.

The James River train bearing the Governor and party was inte, but an immense crowd awaited him at the station the while, enlivened at intervals by the inspiring strains of the Alpine Band. After supper at Gladys Inn, the Governor and party were driven to the Opera and party were driven to the Opera House and were loudly cheered by crowds

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 22.—The meeting of the State Republican Committee here last night, when the State convention, to be held at Roanoke, on August 8th, was provided for, indicates clearly that Virginia is to have a "Lilly White" Republican party in the future.
While the party will welcome the votes of the black brother, there is not the slightest doubt but that he will not be permitted to have any part in the future deliberations of the party. There was not a negro present at the meeting of the committee last night, save a single one, who occupied a rear seat for an hour, and he looked as though he knew he could never again be a factor of the G. O. P. in Virginia.

While nothing was said in the meeting last night, it is understood that every effort is to be made in the city and county conventions to keep the number of negro delegates to the State convention down to the very lowest possible number.

number. On the other hand, there is no doubt hut the present managers of the party Congressman Siemp and his friends mean to make a determined fight to carmean to make a determined fight to carry Virginia in November, and, if possible, control the coming General Assembly.
That the managers of the party believe they have a good fighting chance is the general claim, but it is certain if they do not win, that it will not be because the State is not thoroughly organized and Origin of "Schooner." "Schoofier," according to the Indianapolis News, is a word of American manufacture. At Gloucester, Mass., about 1713. Captain Anterwa Robinson built the first vessel called by that name. As it sild off the atocks into the water a bystander shouted: "Oh, how she scoons!" (skims). Robinson instantly said: "As schooner let her be." The name has been universally adopted, but, singularly enough, is spelled in the Dutch manner, though it is provincial English.

All White Committee.

in the local Republican ranks between dual city committees, one composed of white voters and the other principally of colored men, was patched up late last night by Chairman C. B. Slemp, of the State Committee, and a new committee, composed entirely of white men, was selected in lieu of the two organizations.

selected in item of the two tions.

This fight has been of some years' standing, and it was settled by Mr. Blemp securing the resignations of members of both committees. The reorganization which followed gave the chairmanship to John J. Burnett; and the secretaryship to John E. Boze.

A prominent Republican leader said today that an effort would be made at once to rehabilitate the party in the city, claiming that the settlement of the differences between the committees has onthused and harmonized the voters of the party here.
